AUSTIN, TEXAS:
DEMOCRATIC STATESMAN STEAM PRINT.
1876.

REPRESENTATIVE M. QUIN was born in Ireland and raised and educated in Georgia ; is now 41 years old, and has lived in Texas for 20 years ; resides in the city of Galveston, surrounded with the comforts of a delightful home and the society of an interesting family. Mr. Quin is a professional merchant, having devoted his life to mercantile pursuits. When the late war commenced, the blood of an Irishman, coursing through his veins, led him to immediate service in the army. He served as captain of Company H, Flournoy's Regiment, in the Confederate States service.

Mr. Quin was nominated by the Democracy of his district for representative in the Fifteenth Legislature, and was elected by a majority of 3416 votes.
